Get Ready For

25th Annual Fish Derby

April 18th and 19th, 2020

It's Happening! The Neal Taylor Nature Center is gearing up to host its 25th Annual Fish Derby at Cachuma Lake on Saturday, April 18th and Sunday, April 19th, 2020, rain or shine! With updated and expanded prize levels totaling more than $5,000 in cash and thousands more in merchandise, every angler has a chance to reel in The Big One!

The annual Fish Derby is also a fun way to gather with family and friends to enjoy the great outdoors, all while supporting The Neal Taylor Nature Center, your local non-profit! The Nature Center, just this past year welcomed more than 42,000 students, families, kids, and visitors through its doors – all free of charge, because of your support!

For more information on prize structure and to print your own registration form, go to the official website at www.TroutDerby.org or call the Fish Derby Hotline at (805) 693-8381. Be sure to get your registration postmarked by April 4th for early registration – Adults (16 yrs. or older) - $35 and Youth (15 yrs. or younger) - $10. For information on how you can help as a sponsor, donor and/or volunteer: Contact Julie McDonald directly at julie@clnaturecenter.org or call at 805-729-2246.

Food for Thought Lecture Series

Sunday, March 8, 2020 at 2:00 PM

Birding in Santa Barbara County

Presented by:

Coni Edick, Education Co-Chair, Santa Barbara Audubon Society &
Bird Handler/Lead with Eyes in Sky

Coni's presentation will guide you through the natural beauty of Santa Barbara's birding hot spots. As part of the presentation, you'll experience the sensory richness of birding, discover how birding helps us to connect with nature and identify some of the seasons and local areas for finding birds.

Lecture from 2–3pm with a meet-and-greet and refreshments to follow.
The talk is free and will be held at the Neal Taylor Nature Center at Cachuma Lake.
