Visit the Neal Taylor Nature Center!

We are ready for the summer season and looking forward to kicking it off in style! Come help us celebrate by visiting the Nature Center, attending our Going “Batty” at the Nature Center a Living Exhibit program, or checking out the Books & Treasures sale!

Nature Center Schedule and Programs through June 26, 2022:

Neal Taylor Nature Center:

Open Thursday thru Saturday from 10 a.m.-4 p.m. and Sunday from 10 a.m.- 2 p.m.

Discover the beauty of nature and the rich cultural history through informative and fun exhibits featuring the Chumash Native Americans, as well as the diverse animal and plant life of the region.

Admission: Donation.

Books & Treasures Sale:

Saturday from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Come find a special book or treasure and help support the Nature Center!

Going “Batty” at the Nature Center:

Saturday eve – meet at 8:15 p.m. in front of the Nature Center for a guided program by a Nature

Center host on our living bat exhibit! Learn all out the local bats and watch as the bats drop out of their bat box to feed. Admission: Donation.

Neal Taylor Nature Center's Native Garden:

Learn about the plants and critters that make the garden their home by taking a stroll in the Nature Center's Garden. All native plants are labeled and have a QR code so you can learn more in-depth information about each of the plants and their Chumash uses.

Admission: Donation (Donation slot - side door to garage inside breeze way).
