Food for Thought Speakers Series:

Solvang's Rich History of Danish Baking

with Bent Olsen, Owner of Olsen's Danish Village Bakery

Sunday, November 16th at 2PM

ADMISSION: Donation

Guest speaker Bent Olsen will speak on Danish Bakeries in Solvang, California. Learn how six Danish bakeries have been able to thrive in Solvang, a small village of just 6,000 residents with a unique history. Peer into the rich culture and passed down techniques of Danish baking. Get a taste for yourself and sample the Olsen's Danish Village Bakery signature pastry. Fresh brewed coffee will be provided, courtesy of El Rancho Marketplace. The presentation will finish with a Q&A.

GOING BATTY IN 2025: A RECORD-BREAKING SEASON WRAPS UP

As the weather cools down and evenings turn crisp enough for sweaters, our bats are feeling the chill too. Without their own cozy knits to keep them warm, they're heading south for the season.

Thanks to our resident wild bats, our volunteers and thousands of attendees, this year's Going Batty was our biggest success yet! Over 6,200 campers and visitors came to the program this year, raising over $4,800 for the nature center. Read more >

BIRDWATCHING SPOTLIGHT: INTERVIEW WITH PROJECT FEEDERWATCH VOLUNTEER CHRIS FARRO

In this interview, two-year Project FeederWatch volunteer Chris Farro —our primary observer who tracks bird sightings for Cornell Lab— shares her keen observations, discusses attracting different species, and reflects on why birdwatching matters for conservation. Read more >
